

CONFIDENTIAL

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 19 August 1974

25X1 [redacted]

25X1 1. [redacted] In [redacted] absence, spoke with 25X1
25X1 [redacted] NSA, who called to alert us that the Ervin bill, having to do with polygraph and constitutional rights of civilian employees of the executive ✓ branch (S. 1688, H.R. 1281), was going into markup at 2:00 p.m. today.
25X1 I explained to [redacted] that [redacted] was on the Hill this afternoon, but that 25X1
we would try to get in touch with him in case he might be able to stop by and find out what had transpired in markup.

25X1 2. [redacted] Received a call from Claudia Henagan, in the district office of Representative John Breau, (D., La.), requesting personnel information, specifically the location of the nearest regional recruiter. I took her number to call her back after checking on it. I called Personnel and they said to get the constituent's name, address and 25X1 phone number so the [redacted] recruiter could get in touch directly.
25X1 I called Ms. Henagan back and relayed the information. The constituent is [redacted]
the regional recruiter, will be in touch.

25X1 3. [redacted] Called Marcia MacNaughton, Senate ✓ Government Operations Committee staff, to determine the status of S. 3418, a bill to establish a Federal Privacy Board. Miss MacNaughton said markup on a new version of the bill (Confidential Committee Print No. 5) would begin tomorrow.

25X1 4. [redacted] Called Helen Mattas, Staff Assistant, ✓ House Foreign Affairs Committee, to request a copy of the amendment by Representative Michael Harrington (D., Mass.) on CIA covert action which was offered and defeated during last Thursday's markup session of the House version of the Foreign Assistance Act. The copy was made available.
25X1 [redacted]

CONFIDENTIAL

2 IMPDET CL 8 [signature]